

The 18 month "conduct of business" exemption in the Federal Law is too long. Depending on how it is interpreted, someone could be annoyed by unsolicited telemarketing calls from a vendor that they tried once, were unsatisfied with, and subsequently returned the product.